The Fissel herd of approximately 25 cows produced an average of 17,183 pounds of milk and 626 pounds of butterfat to win the award as the top herd in the country for the third straight time.

In 1962 the Lu Pa Green Acres herd was announced as the first in the county ever to produce an average per cow of more than 600 pounds of butterfat. Their record that year, per cow in the herd was 637 pounds of butterfat and 17,848 pounds of milk. Last year they reached an almost incredible 682 pounds of fat and 18,733 pounds of milk per animal. This year the production fell off to an average of 17,813 pounds of milk per cow, still more than 2,000 pounds per cow and than their nearest competitor and 626 pounds of fat per cow, or 15 pounds per cow above their second place herd.

MORE RECORDS SET

As a result, Noel's herd, which is located on his farm on Westminster R. 2, not only won the second place award today, but also received the award for the herd making the greatest increase this year.

Noel, state director for the county Holstein Association, raised his production averages against the odds — he increased his herd from 52 animals in the

Union Secretary Seeks To Dethrone McDonald, Steelworkers President

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Battle lines were forming today in a power struggle for control of the big United Steelworkers Union.

I. W. Abel, USW secretary-treasurer, virtually unknown to the general public, announced Friday he'll try to wrest the union presidency from David J. McDonald in the union election Feb. 12.

Within hours, three powerful USW district directors in Ohio tossed their support to Abel. Observers believe other support for Abel will be forthcoming.

There had been rumors of a split brewing in the USW leadership for months.

SUPPORT TO SPREAD

The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette quoted unidentified sources in the union as saying that opposition to McDonald stems from what they call his lack of communication with the rank-and-file of the million-member union. Local officers reportedly claimed they have been unable to meet with McDonald to discuss problems.

Twice within about a year, out-of-town steelworkers picketed the union's international offices in downtown Pittsburgh.

The Ohio support for Abel, of Magnolia, Ohio, came from three districts that contain about 90,000 of the state's 135,000 USW members.

SUPPORT ABEL

Paul Schremp, director of the Cleveland area district, said his 17-member staff has voted unanimously to back Abel. Schremp said they followed his recommendation.

In Canton, director John S. Johns said his staff took the same action under his direction.

Paul Rusen, director of the Steubenville district, said his district has lined up behind Abel.

McDonald said of Abel's candidacy, "it did not come totally as a surprise...After all, this

This test is sponsored by the Christmas Seal organization, with the cooperation of the school administrators, doctors and nurses, with the Pennsylvania Department of Health and the nurses at the county health center and the Adams County Medical Society.

FREE X-RAYS

The mobile X-ray unit which will be in front of the Plaza Restaurant this month will be open each day from 1 to 5 and 6 to 9 p.m.

Any person 18 years of age or over is offered this free chest X-ray and each person will be notified within a month of the X-ray if the film is clear or if there is any finding. Those under 18 years of age will not be X-rayed unless they have a reactor card or a specific request signed by a physician.

Due to changes in regulations by the Pennsylvania Department of Health, the unit can no longer be scheduled for factories, schools or industries, but must be centrally located in the county.

This is sponsored by the Adams County Tuberculosis and Health Society, whose funds are received through the annual Christmas Seal sale.

DILLON ASKED TO KEEP HIS CABINET POST

By ADREN COOPER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has asked Douglas Dillon to remain indefinitely as secretary of the treasury, informed sources said today.

Dillon, 55, is restless for a change after four years in the post but has made no decision, the sources said.

The Republican has held a variety of jobs in international affairs and finance since he entered government under then President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1953.

After the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, Dillon told Johnson he would stay until the new administration was well established. During the presidential election campaign, he said he still considered himself a liberal Republican. He openly attacked policies recommended by Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican nominee.

GOOD PROGRESS

The secretary feels that good progress has been made in bolstering the domestic economy and stemming the flow of dollars abroad.

Two other key administration figures announced some time ago that they intend to quit their jobs shortly after the election — Dr. Walter W. Heller, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, and Robert V. Roosa, undersecretary of the treasury for monetary affairs.

The job of undersecretary of the treasury — the No. 2 position in the department — has been vacant since the resignation in March of Henry M. Fowler.

Dillon's father has been ill and there is a possibility the secretary will take over the investment banking business the elder Dilion founded.

A few years ago, Dillon, a multimillionaire, was quoted as saying no job in private life offers the satisfactions to be found in government service. He enjoyed the State Department troubleshooting assignments he was given during the Eisenhower administration.

Asks First Rate Hike In 50 Years

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Public Utility Commission is considering a proposal by the Moscow Water Co., Wilkes-Barre, to increase rates $5,749 a year, beginning Jan. 1.

If approved, it would mark the first time in the 50-year history of the company that it has increased rates. The PUC was told that present rates were inadequate to meet operating costs.

Under the proposal, monthly rates for the 229 customers in Moscow and Covington boroughs and Madison Township would go up from $10 to $16 for the first tap, with additional increases for other types of use.

GRIMY BOARD SELECTED FOR ART DISPLAY

BALTIMORE (AP) — A dirty piece of cardboard, 4 feet by 6, is among 42 works of art selected for exhibition in the 24th annual "Life in Baltimore" show which opens Sunday at the Peale Museum.

The cardboard, titled "Dust Horses — Photo Finish," carries a price tag of $100 and has been officially classified as art by a panel of out-of-town judges.

But Morris Martick, proprietor of a West Baltimore tavern that is a favorite hangout for artists, found the cardboard last spring in "a typical garage restroom — grimy, greasy, windowless." He said the cardboard was being used to fill an empty space above a partition separating the restroom from the repair shop.

IMAGE OF HORSES

The pattern left on the cardboard by years' accumulation of dust was "an image of horses," he said.

"It was very abstract, but the image was there."

Martick described the work as "found art," which he defines as any by-product of human activity with esthetic value. Natural phenomena such as driftwood, pebbles and seashells are excluded.

To qualify, says Martick, a work must have been created through exposure to man or his environment. Moreover, the creation must have been entirely accidental.

FISSEL HERD

prior year to 63 this year.

The rapid rise of the Noel herd pushed Joseph Stoner, East Berlin R. 2, from the second spot. Stoner's 46 cows won the third place award with an average of 570 pounds of butterfat and 14,022 pounds of milk per cow. Glenn Sterner and Son, Gettysburg R. 1, this year received the fourth place award — just as they did last year. The record this year for the 37 cows in the Sterner herd was 562 pounds of butterfat and 13,214 pounds of milk per cow.

JOINS TOP FIVE

William B. Hall, Gettysburg R. 6, moved into the top five, winning the fifth place award with an average of 553 pounds of butterfat and 14,434 pounds of milk per cow

An average of 500 pounds butter fat per cow once was almost a dream for farmers. This year 6 of the herds in the DHIA exceeded the 500 mark.

Up until last year herd ranking began at 300 pounds. This year the bottom of the list was set at 400 pounds butterfat per cow average, and 29 herds exceeded that mark.

OLD YARDSTICKS OUT

Another "goal" of yesteryear also dropped from the picture entirely this year. Up to last year certificates were given cows with a lifetime average of 3,000 pounds of butterfat. This year the lowest certificate is for 4,000 pounds of butterfat.

The DHIA report showed that an average of 1,367 cows were in the herds on test through the year. The average production per cow was 12,339 pounds of milk and 472 pounds of butterfat.

The report for the DHIA shows the tremendous advance in production per cow that has come about since the organization was established 35 years ago. In 1928 there were 218 cows on test. They produced 8,598 pounds of milk and 302 pounds of butterfat per animal. That remained the approximate figure up through 1953.

Since then production has zoomed. Six years ago the averages moved to 10,000 pounds of milk and 400 pounds of butterfat, three years ago they moved into 11,000 pounds of milk and 450 pounds of butterfat. This year the animals moved into the 12,000 pounds of milk class and continued at the 470 pounds of butterfat level.

Seeks 76-Year-Old Genealogy Record

Has anyone locally seen a copy of a 30-page illustrated genealogy Harriet McCreery wrote in 1888?

Miss Marjorie McCreery, 4253 Brookside Blvd., Cleveland 35, Ohio, recently visited Gettysburg in search of the booklet. She visited with Mrs. Edith Ditchburn, E. Middle St., and phoned Arthur Weaner, Gettysburg R. 6, an officer in the county historical society, but they could give no details.

Miss McCreery is seeking the information as part of a project of compiling the list of descendants of William McCreery, who came to the U. S in 1740. So far Miss McCreery has published 350 pages on descendants of John McCreery, of Lancaster, who was a brother of William, but now she'd like to get around to finding out the genealogy of the other side of the family.

She admits that so far she had found about 40 families descending or intermarrying with the McCreerys.

"MET-ED" NEW ABBREVIATION FOR UTILITY

Met-Ed is the new abbreviation for Metropolitan Edison Company and there is a modern symbol to go with it.

W. R. Snyder, president of the electric utility, said that beginning today "we want everyone to just say Met-Ed for short.

"We are giving our customers a standard identification—a short way to address letters to Metropolitan Edison, or to write checks or simply to refer to our company. This is a convenience we need because in various parts of our company we have been known as MECO, Edison Company or M. E. Company. Now it will be Met-Ed everywhere," he added.

EASY TO READ

The reason Met-Ed was selected for Metropolitan Edison Company is obvious. Company officials feel it will be easy to read, easy to say and easy to remember.

The new symbol for the company was designed by overlapping two parallelograms to form the appearance of a folded ribbon. The Met-Ed abbreviation was inscribed inside to encourage the distinct, two-syllable pronunciation of Met-Ed.

"We believe this is a modern symbol to represent us as a progressive company in a progressive industry. That's why at the same time we also adopted a significant slogan, 'Power for Progress,'" Mr. Snyder said.

Beginning today, Met-Ed and the new Met-Ed symbol will be seen on alll company equipment and correspondence.

REDS DISPLAY NEW ROCKETS ON BIRTHDAY

By GEORGE SYVERTSEN

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union paraded huge new rockets through Red Square today under the eyes of the world's top communist leaders here to celebrate the Bolshevik Revolution's 47th anniversary.

The Soviet military trundled five new types of rockets out of its secret armories — one of them the biggest ever shown publicly in the Soviet Union.

A television commentator called the huge weapon a "younger sister" of the rocket power plant that hurled the first three-man space ship into orbit last month.

TENSION SHOWS

But the appearance of the world's Communist leaders together atop Lenin's Red Square tomb failed to dispel the shadow cast by the ideological dispute with Peking.

Presiding over the festivities marking the Bolshevik Revolution was the Kremlin's new Communist party chief, Leonid Brezhnev, surrounded by top figures in Russia's new "collective leadership."

Standing with Brezhnev were Premier Alexei Kosygin, President Anastas Mikoyan and other Soviet luminaries.

Communist Chinese Premier Chou En-lai and his delegation from Peking, which demands a hard line toward the West, looked on while a "peaceful coexistence" soft-line which apparently continues as policy of the new Kremlin leaders was delivered by Defense Minister Rodion Y. Malinovsky.

WANTS BURCH RETAINED AS GOP CHAIRMAN

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

WASHINGTON (AP) — Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater, returning to the capital for the first time since his presidential bid was shattered, has urged retention of Dean Burch as Republican national chairman, despite cries from GOP moderates for Burch's scalp.

"My recommendation would be to keep him because for the first time in memory we finished the campaign in the black," Goldwater told an airport news conference Friday on his arrival from Phoenix.

CALLS '65 MEETING

The GOP presidential nominee, who carried only six states in Tuesday's election, added that Burch, whom he had selected for the job as chairman, had done a "very, very commendable job." Goldwater urged a thorough analysis of the election returns and said the GOP would be wrong "going off half-cocked before that is done."

Burch said he would call a meeting of the GOP National Committee after the first of the year to discuss "all questions of interest to the party, including that of my chairmanship.

"I seek to lead, not to dictate, and I will continue that leadership as long as the Republican party wants me to."

Asked what would be the effect if the National Committee refused to give him a vote of confidence, Burch said, "It would be rather hobbling."

Newly-Developed Nature Trail On Battlefield Proves Very Popular

The newly developed nature trail on the Gettysburg Battlefield is proving both extremely popular and ever changing, National Park officials said today.

High point on the trail may prove to be a display cut from a tree showing by its rings the size of the tree when the armies fought here in 1963. Or it might be seven deer—as sen by one party which toured the area.

Established at Big Round Top to provide battlefield visitors with a view of the area as it appeared to the troops when they fought through the southern portion of the 'field, the nature trail has already attracted several thousand visitors and is meeting the interests of visitors in many aspects of nature. Park Superintendent Kittridge A. Wing, in a letter inviting high school classes to visit the trail and offering guided tours, noted that "this is a worthwhile study for all interested in the natural history of the Appalachian hardwood forests."

INTEREST FOR STUDENTS

He also noted that it contains much to interest classes in general science and biology.

The nature trail proved unusually popular during the period when the coloration of the leaves was at its best, and continues a popular walk for tourists.

Park Ranber Robert Osborne, who developed the trail starting last summer, said, "The work of improving and developing the trail is unending because the work of nature is forever in a state of constant change, and we are adjusting the trail and changing our story to correspond with the changes nature is making. In the meantime were are seeking continuously ways of improving the trail to provide more information to those who avail themselves of the tour."

"SPHINX" ON TRAIL

One of the sights along the trail that has proved unusually popular is a rock formation that has become known as "The Sphinx." Two diabase boulders, one atop the other, have weathered to the point where they resemble the Sphynix built by the ancient Egyptians.

The mile-long trail encircles the base of Big Round Top. At the start of the trail, which begins off the path leading to Big Round Top tower, self-guiding leaflets are provided free of charge to those making the 59-stop tour. Numbered posts correspond with the number of the descriptions in the leaflets.

Scientists Who Made Red China's Nuclear Weapon Baffle Yankee Experts

By FRANK CAREY

WASHINGTON (AP)—There's a real Chinese puzzle connected with Red China's recent nuclear weapons test: Who were the scientists who masterminded the venture?

The Red Chinese have given no clues, nor have the U.S. State Department or the Atomic Energy Commission.

But there has been considerable speculation in newspaper stories in the United States, Britain and France — with most of the theorizing centering on two men.

These two scientists — whose backgrounds make it very likely they were in on the project — are:

QUESTION SPELLING

1. Ch'ien San-chiang, who heads the institute of nuclear physics at Peking and who worked in France during World War II on various research studies, including nuclear fission.

2. Hsue-shen Tsien, 55, who spent 20 years in the United States before being deported to Red China on allegations he had been a member of the Communist party before entering this country.

The trouble is, there have been so many variations in the published spelling of the names of this pair that a quick reading of the published reports might make it appear that a whole flock of Chinese scientists had been pinned down as members of the A-bomb cast.

DIFFERENT SPELLING

The spellings given here are from the official catalogues of the U.S. Library of Congress — although library experts make no claims that they know these men were in on the A-bomb venture.

Language experts say the confusion stems largely from the fact that in different countries the transliteration of names from one language to another often results in different forms. Phonetics sometimes enters the picture, too; for example 'Tsien" and "Chien" stand for the same name in different versions.

Spelling aside, it seems clear that if Hsue-shen Tsien was one of the Red China atom scientists, his American education must have come in handy, particularly if the Red Chinese start attaching nuclear weapons to rockets.

ROME COUNCIL RUSHES WORK TO REACH GOAL

By GERALD MILLER

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Determined to get as much work done as possible before recess, the Vatican Ecumenical Council turned today to a weekend session.

With only 10 more working days left before the council recesses on Nov. 21, this session has yet to produce a finished document for promulgation.

Council circles predict that the schema on the nature of the Church and the document on ecumenism, or religious unity, are the likeliest candidates for promulgation.

SHARE POWER

The document on the Church spells out the concept that bishops collectively share power with the Pope in governing the Roman Catholic Church. Work on two of the eight chapters is done and approved. The remaining six chapters have been amended and accepted by vote. Now the council has only to vote on whether it approves the handling of suggested revisions.

The situation on the unity schema is more complicated. The three chapters, which deal with relations with non-Catholic Christians, are finished and voted on. But there are conflicting reports on the declarations on the Jews and on religious liberty, which are included as part of the schema.

ASK REWRITING

Both declarations were sent back to a commission for drastic rewriting.

"Their status is a bit up in the air," said a council expert.

"If the officers of the council think that it will take too long to complete them, they might decide that rather than hold up action on the schema the three chapters themselves will be promulgated without the declarations, and the declarations can be finished at the next session."

seems to be the season for such antics."

McDonald said he was unaware of any dissatisfaction in the union. He pointed to benefits he said his leadership had brought to the union.

Abel issued a statement saying he and others seeking union posts intend to see that the USW remains "a great union, owned by and responsible to the will of the membership." He declined to elaborate.

REOPEN TALKS

It's generally believed the USW willl reopen contract talks with the basic steel industry next year. The current contract contains such a reopening clause. At this point, it's anyone's guess what effect the union leadership fight will have on future dealings with the companies.

McDonald, 61, took over as president in 1952 upon the death of Philip Murray, founder and first president of the USW.

His only opposition for office came in 1957 when Donald C. Rarick, a milllworker from nearby McKeesport, took a crack at the presidency as the leader of a group unhappy with a $2 increase in monthly dues. Rarick polled about a third of the votes.

Abel, 56, has been secretary-treasurer since McDonald became president.

Glenn Mummert, Gettysburg R. 4, became a chicken owner in an unusual fashion last week.

Mummert Friday visited his father-in-law, Russell Moser, Littlestown, and then drove for about 35 miles, stopping at the Battlefield Service station here for gas and oil

When attendants opened the hood they found something new had been added, a hen was seated atop the fuel pump.

Mummert placed the chicken in a box and took it home. Enroute it laid an egg.

Saturday he returned the fowl to his father-in-law who recognized it as one of his flock. The men surmise that the bird flew up under the car and was roosting on the engine when Mummert, unaware of its presence, left the Moser home Friday.

Moser, convinced that the hen had adopted Mummert, presented him with the fowl.

Today's Talk

WHY NOT RATION WORRY?

We ought more and more to be a government by ourselves and, to get off to a good start, what better plan than to ration our worries? And I would suggest that only about five minutes a day be so rationed for their consideration.

We could take a final hour in which to count our blessings, but I would confine all our worries into no longer than five minutes. It seems to me that worry would then soon be outlawed, and no more worries needed. They would leave of their own accord — not being needed!

Rumer Godden, the English writer, said, in one of her delightful books, that the Buddhists in India "put their prayer flags where the wind will blow them, and their prayer wheels in the streams, where the water will turn them, and get on with their work while the prayers are said."

When we put ourselves to a good task, and feel happily engaged in it, then there is no room for worry. Worry has no appointed abiding place. That's why it tries to sneak in when and where it is least expected, and where it may hope to gain a foothold. Busy people have no empty stools on which worry can perch its impy presence.

Worry eats out the life of a mind, or soul just as termites eat out the life of the wood into which they penetrate — in the dark. You can't see worry at work, any more than you can see the termites, but you soon see the result. Worry leaves scars. It steals years away, too.

But why give worry any foothold at all? It has never helped a single human being. It has harmed endless millions. All of us are sincerely concerned about our work, about those whom we love, and about everything that promises a better world, but worry can give no benefit at any time or place.

So I believe we ought to ration this worry business, giving it the least possible consideration, edging it finally from all our undertakings and thoughts, until it is happily and deservedly dismissed from our lives.

CONGO REBELS THREATEN LIFE OF NEW NATION

By ROBIN MANNOCK

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Rebel warrior bands who six months ago erupted across the eastern Congo to threaten the very life of the nation are being beaten down.

Each day brings fresh portents of rot in the fabric of the rebel "Congolese People's Republic" in Stanleyville. Now, there is fear that the revolt's collapse will bring barbarism and darkness in its wake.

Born of frustration and discontent, the rebellion has so far vented its fury on educated Congolese. People escaping from the rebel zone tell of being forced to watch rebels shoot, hack to death or burn alive hundreds of Congolese whose crime was that they could read or write.

1,000 MENACED

The Congolese "elite," the rebels argued, had sold out their country's independence to imperialists. But now, there are signs that their frustration is seeking other scapegoats and the rebels are turning their rage against the white man.

Directly menaced are more than 1,000 foreigners. Most are Belgians, but they include 60 American missionaries, teachers and government officials trapped inside the rebel realm of self-proclaimed President Christophe Gbenye.

Rebel Radio Stanleyville has relentlessly painted the Americans as villains of an imperialist plot. Last week, Gbenye added Belgians to the blacklist, claiming his regime no longer would protect Belgian lives and property.

Then rebel "lieutenant-general" Nicholas Olenga radioed local chieftains of the "popular liberation army," ordering them to place all foreigners under house arrest.

4 Harness Tracks Licensed By State

HARRISBURG (AP) — Four harness race tracks will operate in Pennsylvania next year, the State Harness Racing Commission said Friday.

The commission approved licenses for the tracks, including Pocono Downs, near Wilkes-Barre, which will be conducting racing for the first time.

The commission also fixed these racing dates for 1965:

William Penn Racing Association, Philadelphia—April 2-May 1 and Sept. 11-Oct. 9.

Liberty Bell Racing Association, Philadelphia—June 4-July 31.

Washington Trotting Association, Inc., near Washington — June 18-Aug. 14.

Pocono Downs—July 15- Sept. 10.

JAPS PROTEST U. S. SUB VISITS

YOKOSUKA, Japan (AP)— Police clashed today with about 8,000 students and socialists snake - dancing in front of a U.S. naval base to protest scheduled visits by nuclear submarines.

The clash occurred after the demonstrators — carrying "Yankee Go Home" placards— marched up to the main gate of the Yokosuka base and began hurling rocks, placards and shoes at police stationed there.

The police charged the mob swinging their truncheons.

Several demonstrators were clubbed to the ground, but there were no reports of serious casualties.

Authorities said 34 demonstrators were arrested on charges of obstructing police.

Demonstrators included 800 members of a leftist organization which staged violent riots in Japan in 1960 to protest the U.S. — Japan security treaty.

The 1960 riots forced the cancellation of a visit by President Eisenhower and resulted in the downfall of the government of Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi.

BARRIENTOS IS BOLIVIAN HEAD

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP)—Vice President Rene Barrientos, a general and former air force chief of staff, has emerged from the Bolivian revolt as president just as ousted President Victor Paz Estenssoro said he would.

Barrientos, a leader of the revolt against Paz, flew from his home in Cochabamba to La Paz Thursday, and the chief of the armed forces, Gen. Alfredo Obando Candia, announced he and the vice president would be co-presidents.

An hour later Barrientos announced Obando had decided to esign in his favor "to cooperate in the re-establishment of tranquility in the country."

OBANDO WITHDRAWS

Obando had taken control in the capital after Paz fled to Peru Wednesday morning.

Obando's withdrawal in favor of Barrientos eased the tense and chaotic situation, but the country still was far from stable.

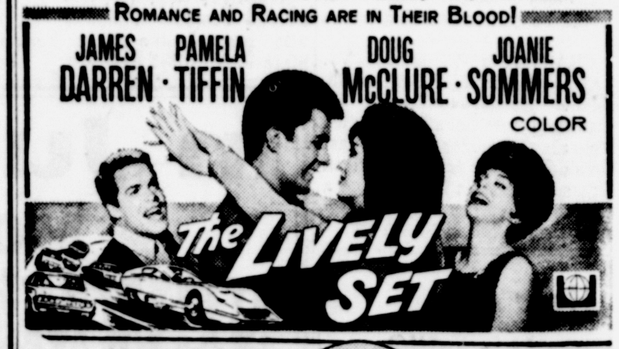

The army has taken possession of public buildings in La Paz, but armed civilian bands roamed the streets. Possibly 40 persons were killed and 150 wounded in fighting Wednesday and Wednesday night between supporters and opponents of the deposed president.

The tradition of Thanksgiving being celebrated on a Thursday began in 1789. At that time, George Washington wrote a presidential proclamation recommending that Thursday, Nov. 26, be recognized as a day of national Thanksgiving.

G-BURG FROSH AND STEVENS TRADE IN TIE

The Gettysburg College Freshman football team had to score twice in the last period to pull a 14-14 deadlock out of the fire against Stevens Trade as the Little Bullets closed their grid season on Memorial Field Friday afternoon.

Coach Ray Reider's yearlings have not dropped a contest in two years, but Friday's game marked the third tie for the season. The frosh posted a final mark of 2-0-3.

Stevens Trade ran the short punt formation or the single-wing most effectively with workhorse John Arner accounting for much of the 201 yards. Coach Dick Bevilacqua's squad, 3-3-1 on the season, broke into the scoring column in the second period with both of their TDs and led 14-0 at intermission. Arner intercepted a Lou Bruchey pass and the Tradesmen took over on their 19. Six plays later Arner drove over from the four and his placement was wide to the left.

Following a Bullet punt, the visitors started on their own 26 and marched 74 yards on 10 plays with Don Bolinger passing to end John Galgoci for the last 18. The key play on the drive was Arner's 32-yard scamper around right end. Arner ran for the two-point conversion.

DRIVES STOPPED

Gettysburg got in close to Stevens Trades' goal line, but fumbles and intercepted passes stopped the drives cold. Finally in the last quarter, two quick plays netted the Little Bullets a pair of scores and a tie.

End Joe Marincic recovered a Trade fumble on the visitors' 21. After Tom Kardash advanced for two yards, quarterback Jack Bates fired a pass to Chuck Frame for the 19-yard score. Bruchey, on a fake placement attempt, passed to Kardash for the important two extra points.

With only 3:32 minutes remaining in the game, the Little Bullets knotted the count. On a fourth and sixth situation Arner was forced to punt for Stevens Trade. Bates took the punt in on his own 35 and behind some fancy blocking, darted up the sidelines for a 65-yard touchdown jaunt. This time, on the same fake, Bruchey was stopped running the ball for the conversion.

Pimlico To Open Meet Next Friday

BALTIMORE—Continuing their long-range program of track improvements, Pimlico Race Course officials completed several noteworthy projects well in advance of the 28-day autumn meeting which opens next Friday.

Highlighted by a program of six stake races, the Pimlico meeting will run from Friday, November 13, through Tuesday, December 15.

Changes in th 105-acre plant will be most apparent to horsemen, as work during the summer was centered in the stable area. Included in the backstretch improvement program was the black-topping of all roads in the area, the construction of 17 concrete-block tack rooms, and the painting and general rehabilitation of the five "double letter" barns to the rear of the grandstand.

LIBERTY BELL WILL SEEK '66 HAMBLETONIAN

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Liberty Bell Park plans to bid for the Hambletonian, the Kentucky Derby of harness racing, for 1966 or later.

Edward J. Dougherty, president of Liberty Bell Racing Association, received permission Friday from the Pennsylvania Harness Racing Commission to bid for the classic.

The Hambletonian, a heat race for 2-year-old trotters which carries a purse of more than $100,000, has been held at DuQuoin, Ill., since 1957 without pari-mutuel betting. It will be held in DuQuoin in 1965.

Dougherty said he plans to inform the Hambletonian Society that Liberty Bell will spend $125,000 or more to complete its mile track. The present track is five-eights of a mile, but a mile oval was graded when the plant was built two years ago.

MILE TRACK

The Hambletonian Society has stipulated that the race be held on a mile track and that it be run in daylight hours, which is no problem.

"We felt," said Dougherty, "on the basis of our success in our second year of operation, that now was the time to make the gesture—and it really will be more than a gesture. We're going to go after it and we're going to stay after it."

Dougherty said John H. B. Carter, chairman of the Pennsylvania State Harness Racing Commission, is interested in bringing the race to Pennsylvania.

Lawrence B. Sheppard, of Hanover, Pa., former chairman of the state commission, is first vice president of the Hambletonian Society. The president is E. Roland Harriman, of New York.

FIELD GOAL ON LASTPLAYWINS FOR PATRIOTS

By CHARLES McGILLICUDDY
Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON (AP)—Gino Cappelletti, who makes a habit of winning American Football League games for the Boston Patriots with his toe, often in the last few minutes, did it again Friday night.

Cappelletti earned the Patriots a 25-24 victory over the Houston Oilers with a 42-yard field goal on the last play of the game.

The kick saved a must game for Boston, which trails the undefeated Buffalo Bills by two games. Buffalo is at New York Sunday and the Patriots, who haven't met the Bills this season, are hoping for some help from the Jets.

OTHER GAMES

In other Sunday games, Oakland is at Kansas City and San Diego plays at Denver.

The last time Cappelletti won a game with a field goal on the last play a Texas team also was the opponent. In 1961 he gave Boston a win over the old Dallas Texans with his last-second heroics.

"That kick wasn't as far," Cappelletti recalleld, "but I remember time was running out and the crowd was counting. I guess I kicked that one about 27 yards."

He said he started thinking about the kick on the way back to the huddle. "I just hoped I'd get a good snap. I was confident the kick wouldn't be blocked."

He said the snap was perfect and he knew the ball was going true as soon as he touched it.

Houston's George Blanda, who set an AFL record by throwing 68 passes a week ago, tried 45 Friday night, hitting on 21 for a total of 329 yards.

IRISH, OHIO STATE GIRDED FOR SURPRISE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Notre Dame and Ohio State, the nation's top two major college football teams, were on the lookout today for any surprises two staggering eastern teams might have for them.

The Irish and the Buckeyes each seek their seventh victory without a defeat while four other members of the Top Ten also tried to remain unbeaten. Notre Dame, No. 1, was at Pitt, which had a 2-3-2 record. Second-ranked Ohio State hosted Penn State, 3-4.

The football weekend started Friday night with Miami blanking Tulane 21-0 and Detroit overwhelming Virginia Military 28-7.

SOPH STARS

Quarterback Bob Biletnikoff passed for one Miami touchdown and set up the other two, tossing three times for 37 yards on the first scoring drive and three times for 36 yards on the third drive. He scored on a four-yard run, capping the final thrust.

Detroit was led by Dick Waring, a Canadian sophomore making his first start. Waring passed for 120 yards and ran for 49 in engineering touchdown marches of 68, 90, 58 and 76 yards.

Ara Parseghian, coaching the Irish to their first winning season since 1958, expected Pitt to unveil a few tricks.

"It seems the teams have been using more wide formations, shotguns and other gadgets against us, like Navy did last week," Parseghian said Friday night. "I'd have to guess that Pitt will have some surprises for us, too."

TEST FOR 'BAMA

But Penn State Coach Rip Engle talked as if the Lions would have nothing different to spring on Ohio State. He said:

"We're trying to approach this game like any other on the schedule so our boys won't tighten up. But it's hard to do."

While the top two teams battled to say up here, unbeaten Alabama hoped to move up from third in a crucial clash with eighth-ranked Louisiana State, 5-0-1. The winner of the Southeastern Conference contest is certain to receive a postseason bowl bid.

Arkansas, 7-0 and ranked No. 4, needed a victory against Rice to hold onto the lead in the Southwest Conference. A loss by Arkansas, coupled with a triumph by sixth-ranked Texas over Baylor, would drop the Razorbacks into a tie with the Longhorns.

Purdue, No. 10, could takeover the Big Ten leadership by defeating Michigan State. The Boilermakers have won four league contests since losing to Notre Dame.

The Big Eight lead also was up for grabs with fifth-ranked Nebraska and Kansas meeting head on. The teams were tied going in to the game.

Rounding out the Top Ten, seventh-ranked Georgia Tech battled Tennessee while Florida, No. 9, played Georgia.

Other major pairings were Other major pairings were Syracuse - Army, Harvard-Princeton, Duke-Wake Forest, Navy-Maryland, Illinois - Michigan, Memphis State - Tulsa, UCLA-Air Force and Oregon State-Indiana.

BEARS SCORE 3 IN 82 SECONDS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Goals can be scored fast in hockey. The Hershey Bears tallied three times in 82 seconds Friday night to beat the Cleveland Barons 6-3 in the American Hockey League.

Bruce Draper slapped in the first at 11:38 of the third period. Gene Ubriaco got the second at 12:29 and Don Awrey the third at 13:00.

The Rochester Americans handed the Providence Reds their seventh straight defeat 2-1 in the other AHL game scheduled.

Hershey's three goal outburst fell short of a record. The AHL mark is 57 seconds and it's 21 seconds in the NHL.

The victory put Hershey in second place behind Quebec in the Eastern Division while Rochester's triumph put the Amerks three points ahead of Buffalo in the Western Division.

Rochester took a 2-0 lead on goals by Les Duff and Stan Smrke, then survived Providence's late rally. Jimmy Bartlett scored for the Reds at 10:39 of the last period, but Rochester's defense was too tough the rest of the game.

Bolt Jayvees In Night Game Monday At 8

The Littlestown High School junior varsity football squad will close its season with a night game on Memorial Field, Littlestown, Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Thunderbolts, 2-4, will entertain South Western and a large crowd is expected to watch the neighborhood rivals battle.

COAL TWP. IS UNDEFEATED; 2 ARE UPSET

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Coal Township, Bald Eagle Nittany and Altoona came through with impressive victories in scholastic football games Friday night, but two of the state's powerhouse teams—Lock Haven and Greensburg — were upset.

Fullback Bob Paczkoski scored three touchdowns, including a 20-yard run, to lead undefeated Coal Township to its ninth straight victory of the season. Coal is the top team in the souhern division of the East Penn Conference.

The game was scoreless after the first period. Quarterback Eddie Martnick of West Hazleton suffered an injury on the first play of the second quarter. Coal rolled to a 20-0 halftime lead and blanked West Hazleton until the last few minutes of the game.

HURLS TD PASSES

Quarterback Bon Naponic threw two touchdown passes and ran for a third in sparking Hempfield Area to a 34-13 upset win over Greensburg, previously unbeaten in its quest for the Class AA-WPIAL title. The loss eliminates the Lions from contention; Hempfield had lost out earlier in the season.

The game was tied 7-7 at halftime, but Hempfield forged ahead in the second half and never trailed after that time.

Tyrone took over first place in the Western Pennsylvania Football Conference with its 6-0 upset of previously unbeaten Lock Haven.

Bald Eagle Nittany chalked up its 17th straight victory by romping over Northumberland 32-13.

And Altoona whipped Sharon 59-0 as fullback Mike Reid tallied 31 points on four touchdowns, four conversions and a 40-yard field goal.

In top action tonight, it's Cedar Cliff against Steelton-Highspire in a game that could mean the Central Penn championship for Cedar Cliff; McKeesport against West Mifflin North in an import and WPIAL clash, and undefeated Sharon Hill against Lansdale-Aldan.

UPHOLD FINE, PRISON TERM FOR GINZBURG

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The U. S. Court of Appeals has upheld a $42,000 fine and five-year prison sentence imposed last year on Ralph Ginzburg, of New York, on charges of distributing obscene publications through the mails.

Ginzburg was convicted June 14, 1963, by Federal Judge Ralph C. Body on the basis of three publications—Eros Magazine, Liaison Newsletter, and Documentary Books. Friday Judges Gerald McLaughlin, Harry E. Kalodner and William H. Staley upheld Body's decision on 28 counts of mailing obscenity.

The opinion of the appeals court stated, in part:

SHODDY BUSINESS

"What confronts us is an operation on the part of experts in the shoddy business of pandering to, and exploiting for money, one of the great weaknesses of human beings.

"The appellants' fundamental objective obviously was and is to, more or less openly, force their invitations to obscenity upon the American public through the U.S. mails."

Ginzburg commented on the decision:

"Future generations of Americans will look back with shame and remorse at today's decision. Eros was a genuine work of art and was widely hailed as such. I am hopeful that the U. S. Supreme Court will recognize that truth and beauty has been mocked."

U. S. Sets Pace In Horse Show

NEW YORK (AP) — The United States, disappointed in the Olympic Games, is taking it out on the rest of the Noth American continent in the National Horse Show.

With just four international events to go today Coach Bert De Nemethy's United States equestrian team, has run up a record of 6-for-7. It has been a runaway for Uncle Sam and there is no reason to suspect that the rout won't continue.

Young Jim Day of Canada won the first event last Tuesday and since then no other team has been able to cut into the United States' monopoly.

WILL RESTORE POWER TO NEW COMMISSIONER

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Major league club owners prepare today to vote for the restoration of the baseball commissioner's full power with unlimited jurisdiction over the game.

The move is an all-out effort to regain public confidence and stem the tide of criticism from press and public alike.

This decision, arrived at during the second day of the three-day summit meeting of the baseball magnates, was viewed as a personal triumph for outgoing commissioner Ford Frick although his successor will be the one to reap its full benefits.

Nevertheless, Frick probably gained more stature in two days here than in all his 14 years as baseball czar.

SLASHED POWER

In what probably was the most forceful straight-from-the shoulder speech of his life, the white-thatched former newspaperman warned the owners they must eliminate the clauses which reduced his power and made him little more than a chairman of the board of directors.

"If your new commissioner is to function successfully, if he is to provide the desired leadership and at the same time maintain the public image that baseball desires, he must be given the unquestioned authority and loyal support required to do the job," Frick told the owners and general managers.

TAKE ACTION

Taking the cue from their leader, the owners Friday unanimously approved his recommendations. They immediately set machinery in motion for adoption of a number of the commissioner's proposals designed to restore and maintain public confidence.

They agreed to equip the next commissioner with the same powers enjoyed by baseball's first czar, Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, but denied to his successors by two constitutional changes.

One change gave the owners the right of recourse against the commissioner in the courts and the other stated that no act or procedure agreed upon by the owners could be construed as detrimental to baseball.

MERGE LEADERS

The owners also agreed to centralize all of baseball's high offices including the two league presidents, the minor league head and the commissioner under one roof in a building to be called "Baseball," located either in Chicago, New York or Los Angeles.

They approved a recommendation designed to encourage young athletes to enter baseball and yet restrain the owners from cutting their own throats by high bonus payments to untried youngsters.

They approved a plan for recruiting, development and procurement of umpires. It is aimed at encouraging top grade umpire prospects to come into professional baseball.

Another positive action expected to be taken today at the joint session would prohibit expansion of the major leagues for at least the next three years.

HAS 2-POINT BOWLING LEAD

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP) —Rudy Trinkle of Allentown entered the second round of the Pennsylvania All-Star Bowling Tournament today with less than a two-point lead under the Peterson point system.

After 20 games Friday, Trinkle had 93.24 Peterson points. Tied for second were Jack Winters of Penndel, Bucks County, and Ed Skoczylas of Philadelphia, who had 91.27 points apiece.

Winters had the highest average over the 20 games with a 203.17.

He also had the high single game of 279 and the high four-game block of 902.

Winters tied with two others for the high two-game series at 453. The others were Dick Ghezzi of Shamokin and Edgar Pursel Jr. of Hellertown.

The bowlers roll 16 games today and wind up on Sunday with 20 more games. The women's championships opened today.

After Syracuse sophomore back Floyd Little of New Haven, Conn., scored five touchdowns, Kansas Coach Jack Mitchell said: "It was the greatest performance by a back that I have ever seen."

FAVOR QUEEN IN $188,000 RACE

CHERRY HILL, N.J. (AP) — Queen Empress was the favorite in today's rich Gardenia at Garden State Park and this status could be fatal to the Wheatley Stable's hopes for the big money.

Favorites don't usually win the Gardenia.

The history of the 1 1-16 mile race shows that in the nine previous runnings, the favorite has prevailed only three times. In 1957, Idun was the choice and ran like one. Three years later, Bowl of Flowers rewarded the chalk players at 70 cents on the dollar. And in 1961, Cicada held up at even money.

The winner today, if all 13 start, earns $112,854 of a gross purse of $188,000, both records for the event. Chief contention was expected from Marshua, owned by Mrs. Wallace Gilroy. Marshua has beaten Queen Empress in two of seven head-on meetings.

ROBERTSON OUT WITH AN EYE INJURY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The loss of their all-around star, Oscar Robertson, may cost the Cincinnati Royals dearly in the National Basketball Association.

The Big O suffered an eye injury last Sunday and did not play Friday night against the Baltimore Bullets. The Bullets won 111-106 for their fourth in a row while snapping the Royals' five-game home winning streak.

Wilt Chamberlain, the Big Dipper, scored 52 points as he led the San Francisco Warriors to a 133-127 double overtime victory over the New York Knicks in the other NBA game scheduled. Six of Chamberlain's points came in the last overtime. It was his third game since his recent release from a hospital for a stomach ailment.

BULLETS EXPLODE

Adrian Smith, Robertson's replacement, scored 26 points and Jerry Lucas added 25 more as the Royals led 75-73 before the Bullets exploded in the closing minutes. Walt Bellamy, Gus Johnson and Bailey Howell scored 77 of Baltimore's points between them. Bellamy was high with 30. Howell got 25 and Johnson 22.

San Francisco might have beat the Knicks in regulation time, but Chamberlain was called for goal tending on a Johnny Green shot with two seconds left. The basket counted, tying the score at 110-110, and forcing the overtime. It was still tied 118-118 after the first extra period before the Warriors pulled away.

Green scored 32 points, high for the Knicks who felt the loss of Rookie Willis Reed when he fouled out in the fourth period. Reed had 23 points at the time.

The champion unbeaten Boston Celtics try for their ninth straight victory against Detroit at Boston tonight. In other games Cincinnati is at Philadelphia, Baltimore at St. Louis and San Francisco at Los Angeles.

CLAY EXPECTS BULLING FROM SONNY LISTON

By CHARLES MCGILLICUDDY
Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON, Nov. 7 (AP) — Heavyweight champion Cassius Clay sounded for awhile Friday as if he didn't think he "is the greatest."

In explaining why he spends so much time hanging on the ropes while his sparring partners pound away at him, Cassius let it slip:

"I'm human. I may not look it, I may not act it, I may not talk like I am, but I'm human.

"I get scared. I work, I pray. I'm human."

Lest this confession fool anyone, Cassius quickly followed with:

"All great men face the facts."

EXPECTS BULLING

Clay said he spends time hanging on the ropes, and working with his back in the corner, as he prepared for his Nov. 16 bout with Sonny Liston, to make sure he is ready for any emergency.

"In case the Bear (Liston) comes out bulling, I want to be ready. That's why I practice leaning on a man while he pushes. He's going to get tired while I rest."

Liston is beginning to approach 210 pounds, his target for the bout.

Trainer Willlie Reddish said Sonny would start to taper off the first of next week.

The fighters will get together Monday for their physical examination by Massachusetts Boxing Commission doctors. Each fighter has put up $2,500 bond to prevent a repetition of the ruckus Clay caused at the Miami weigh-in ceremonies.

But Clay said Friday he'll cut up this time too, despite the bond.

"It'll be a great show for $2,500," he said, "and what's $2,500 when you can make $6 million for a fight."

BRAVES LOSE INITIAL ROUND

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Milwaukee County claimed victory today in the first two rounds of its legal skirmish to prevent the Braves from moving to Atlanta.

The case was returned to state courts Friday as U.S. District Judge Robert E. Tehan denied the baseball club's petition to take jurisdiction.

Judge Tehan ruled after a two-day hearing that the bulk of the Braves' business is carried on in Milwaukee despite the move of executive offices to Chicago Oct. 5 and there is no "diversity of citizenship" as claimed by the club.

The court action returned the case to Milwaukee Circuit Court, where the county obtained a temporary order restraining the Braves from moving Oct. 21, within hours of the club's vote to move to Atlanta in 1965. No date has been set for further circuit court action.

REDSKINS EYE VICTORY OVER TOUGH BROWNS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Washington Redskins aren't selling tickets for the National Football League championship game but their lightweight offense may hold the key to the Eastern Division title.

The Redskins meet first-place Cleveland Sunday and the Browns, despite their two-game bulge, can't afford a letdown. They have back-to-back dates coming up against Western Division stalwarts Detroit and Green Bay and a loss to Washington conceivably could turn the Eastern race into a dogfight in the season's remaining five weeks.

WIN LAST TWO

Washington's attack ranks last in the league and the Redskins have dropped five of eight starts, including a 27-13 decision to the Browns in the season opener. But, with quarterback Sonny Jurgensen finding his groove after a slow start and rookie Charlie Taylor in good running form, they have beat Chicago and Philadelphia in their last two games.

In Sunday's other NFL games the Baltimore Colts go after their eighth straight victory and a tighter hold on the Western Division lead against the floundering Chicago Bears; St. Louis, second in the East despite two straight setbacks, hosts Pittsburgh; Detroit, 1½ games behind the Colts in the West, visits Green Bay; Dallas is at New York; Philadelphia at Los Angeles and San Francisco at Minnesota.

AFL CONTESTS

Buffalo's unbeaten Bills play the New York Jets; the San Diego Chargers meet the Denver Broncos and the Oakland Raiders tackle the Kansas City Chiefs in American League Sunday action.

The Boston Patriots nipped the Houston Oilers 25-24 Friday night when Gino Cappelletti booted a 42-yard field goal on the final play of the game.

The Colts walloped Chicago 52-0 in their first meeting and the Bears, 1963 NFL champions, haven't been the same since. They are in the Western Division cellar with a 2-6 mark and have lost ace linebacker Bill George for Sunday's return match.

SURVIVAL BATTLE

The Cardinals, beaten by New York 34-17 last week and crippled by injuries to pass catcher Sonny Randle and fullback Joe Childress, are 4-3-1 while Pittsburgh, also short on linebackers because of injuries, is 3-5.

The Eagles and Rams, third in the East and West, respectively, hook up in a battle for survival with the loser virtually eliminated from title contention.

The other NFL pairings are second meetings. The Packers hold a 14-10 decision over the Lions; the Vikings have beaten the 49ers 27-22 and the Giants and Cowboys have played to a 13-13 deadlock.

MSM BOOTERS LOSE FINAL

A freak goal in the final period enabled the American University soccer team nip Mt. St. Mary's 1-0 Friday afternoon at Emmitsburg.

Bill Elek of the Mount intended to head the ball away from the net but instead bounced in back for an American score with Eric Mollatt, the nearest American player to the play, receiving credit for the goal.

In the final seconds a Mount score was nullified by a penalty.

The Mountaineers finished their season with a 5-5 record and 4-5 mark in the Mason-Dixon conference. American is 4-2-1.

Thomas E. Piper

Evening area performance, rodeo and calf scramble.

Saturday, November 14, continuation of state 4-H Horse Show. Afternoon and evening, rodeo and calf scramble performance.

Added features this year include National Shropshire Show, Suffolk-bred ewe sale, 4-H and FFA classes for beef breeding cattle, junior market lamb classes, Arabian conformation show and the swine evaluation contest.

EVERGREEN PROTECTION

Winter is coming; don't neglect your evergreens. They should be protected against drying winds, fluctuating temperatures and storm damage.

As soon as the ground has frozen, spread a thinck mulch of straw or similar material over the root area to help keep a constant soil temperature and conserve soil moisture.

Erect a screen of burlap or canvass around the plants to shield them from sun and wind injury. To protect upright growing plants from ice and snow damage, chicken wire or a strong cord may be wrapped at intervals around the plant to prevent breaking from additional weight.

BEEF SUPPLY GOOD

Are beef price prospects for the remainder of 1964 good? Will choice cattle prices rise to the $28-$30 level or will they drop back from current levels?

Marketing of cows and grass-fed steers during the remainder of the year will be greater than a year ago. Dry conditions in many parts of the county will cause heavy marketings off pasture.

Total beef production may be about seven per cent higher than during the fall of 1963. Beginning midsummer, most of the buyer interest in feeders has been in heavy weights. Since the demand for heavy feeders has been brisk, cattlemen seem optimistic that the price rise in fed cattle will hold for several months.

The fall market could average close to current levels if both numbers marketed and average weights do not increase.

The beef calf birth rate in 1964 was up about five per cent. The price of feeder cattle is about $4 less than last year. Evidently, cattle numbers cannot be leveled off next year without a further drop in slaughter prices. It is likely that fed cattle prices will be lower in 1965.

Although the spring price of fed animals should not be as low as in 1963, price pressures will develop when the fed animals from the larger 1963 calf crop begin to show up in marketings. Heavy consumer demand for beef will partly offset the price depressing effects of a larger supply of beef.

SUGAR BEET YIELD GOOD IN YORK CO.

York County Farm Agent John T. Smith has reported one and possibly two of the county's four experimental sugar beet crops has produced a high enough average tonnage per acre to indicate the profitable growing of the beets in this area might be feasible.

Smith said the crops were harvested this week under the supervision of Dr. Clarence S. Bryner, Pennsylvania State University agronomist.

He said the highest yield was recorded at the Jacob Flinchbaugh and Son farm, just east of Hellam, where the crop was estimated to equal about 20 tons per acre.

The county agent explained that, assuming the sugar contents of the beets are high enough, "an average of about 18 to 20 tons per acre should be profitable."

Smith reported the second highest yield was noted at the William Veach farm, near Muddy Creek Forks, where the crop was estimated to equal between 12 and 18 tons per acre.

A wide range of between eight and 18 tons per acre was estimated for the crops raised on the farm of John Hope Anderson, New Park fruitgrower, Smith reported. He said this was because one section of the lot produced a much higher yield.

Plane Runs Out Of Gas; 1 Dies

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — A single-engine private plane ran out of gas and crashed near here Friday, killing one man and injuring two dentists.

The dead man was identified as Henry Dillon, 61, of Winston-Salem, N.C., a restaurant manager.

Injured were the pilot, Dr. Dwight Abram Jackson, 53, of Winston-Salem, and Dr. Charles Westrich, of West Salem, N.C. They were both listed in fair condition today at St. Luke's Hospital in Bethlehem.

Jackson told officials the plane, a four-seat Piper, was headed for New York from Winston-Salem. He said he was trying to find the Allentown Airport, but missed it about five miles.

The plane crashed into a line of trees just short of a wheat field, its wings nearly torn off by the treetops, then fell to the ground.

Jackson was found standing next to the wreckage, dazed and bloody.

Paul Lambert, of Center Valley Route ?, an eyewitness, said he saw the plane's landing lights go on just before the crash.

Lambert said he heard no engine noise as the plane passed overhead.

Holds 13-Pin Lead In $60,000 Tourney

GARDEN CITY, N.Y. (AP) — Tom Harnisch of Buffalo carried a slim lead of 13 pins into today's 25 match play games which opened the final rounds of the $60,000 national championship of the Professional Bowlers Association.

Harnisch rolled games of 217, 232, 216, 212, 181 and 196 for a block of 1,254 and a 36-game count of 7,771 pins in Friday night's semifinals that cut the field to 24. Harnisch averaged almost 216 pins for the 36 qualifying games.

In second place was Jim Robinette of Falls Church, Va. who bowled games of 204, 259, 182, 225, 207 and 216 for a total of 7,758.

The 24 finalists will bowl 18 head-to-head games today. On Sunday, the final nine games will be rolled, with the winner receiving $7,500.

GOP LEADER WANTS NIXON TO HEAD PARTY

APPLETON, Wis. (AP)—Wisconsin Republican Chairman Talbot Peterson called Friday for sweeping changes in the national party organization, including the appointment of former Vice President Richard M. Nixon as national chairman.

Peterson said that as a result of the presidential candidacy of Sen. Barry Goldwater "Wisconsin lost the services of one of its greatest citizens, Wilbur Renk." He also blamed Goldwater's candidacy for the defeat of several other Republican candidates.

Renk, a former University of Wisconsin regent and agriculturist, was the Republican nominee for senator. He was defeated by Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., who won re-election.

WARNED BURCH

Peterson said that "because of events concerning Wisconsin, I wrote National Chairman Dean Burch on Oct. 14 and told him that in my opinion Wisconsin was lost."

The state chairman also called for complete change in the national committee structure and the formation of a "shadow cabinet" of leading Republicans.

Although he did not directly ask for Burch's resignation, Peterson said "We should appoint the national chairman who is a spokesman for the party during periods when we are out of office. He should not be bothered with administrative details or finance matters. He should be well-known and highly respected by all Republicans, and he should have conducted himself as a team player in this election.

BARRY HEADS FOR VACATION

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater flew to Washington Friday for a brief business stop before going on a vacation, reportedly to Jamaica.

The defeated Republican presidential nominee planned to take care of some business from the Senate job he is leaving.

He withdrew from the race for re-election when he won the GOP nomination to oppose President Johnson.

Goldwater and his wife planned to go to their Washington apartment, which the senator said he will keep although he is going to move back to Phoenix.

MANY TELEGRAMS

Paul F. Wagner, press secretary, said the Goldwaters probably would leave during the weekend for a vacation.

They have not said where they are going but their vacation spot is rumored to be in Jamaica. Wagner said that Goldwater's plans would not be made public.

Wagner said Thursday Goldwater has received more than 5,000 telegrams, virtually unanimous in backing his announced effort to keep the Republican party on a conservative course.

"Practically everyone of them was along the lines of 'it's a great fight and don't give up now,'" Wagner said.

RULES SPECIAL SESSION OUT

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton has ruled out the possibility of a special session of the Legislature on reapportionment, even though Democrats will control the House in 1965.

"Even with a Democratic House, I believe we can come up with a bi-partisan reapportionment bill which the people will consider fair," Scranton said Thursday at a news conference here.

The Republican - controlled House and Senate passed reapportionment bills in 1963, but the State Supreme Court ruled them invalid and ordered a new redistricting set up by Sept. 1, 1965.

Scranton said he discussed the possibility of a special session before January with Republican leaders of the House and Senate," but they agreed such a session would not be necessary."

Democrats swept back into power in the House in Tuesday's election, all but securing 115 of the 209 seats and ousting at least 17 Republican incumbents. The GOP retained its 27-23 majority in the Senate.

Girl Is Awarded $103,000 Damages

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — An 11-year-old Atlantic City, N. J. girl has been awarded $103,000 damakes for "possible permanent mental and physical injuries" sustained in the collision of a Yellow Co. taxicab and an automobile five years ago.

The girl, Gloria Herron, was awarded the sum Friday by a common pleas court jury of five men and seven women who deliberated 4½ hours.

She was a passenger in a car that collided with the cab at the corner of 10th and Arch Sts. June 20, 1959.

Attorney Jerome Taylor said during the two-week trial that the cab, driven by Albert Taylor, went through a red light, striking the car in which the girl was a passenger.

"Profiles In Courage"

Kennedy Book Debuts As A TV Series Sunday, 6:30 P.M.

Some Actors Resemble Historical Figures They Portray

By RUTH E. THOMPSON

Though President Kennedy didn't live to see the television series based on his Pulitzer Prize book "Profiles In Courage" which premieres Sunday, November 8, with "The Oscar Underwood Story" (6:30 p.m., NBC), he personally worked out all the arrangements with Executive Producer Robert Saudek.

One of the President's provisos was that the series must be delayed a full year, until after the 1964 Presidential elections. "He didn't want a nonpartisan work to be considered in a partisan light. Even after the assassination, Saudek felt that the wisdom of this decision still applied as much as the others," says Michael Ritchie. Ritchit, the brilliant 26 - year - old associate producer for the series, is (like the late President and like Saudek) a Harvard man.

Ae they doing anything different than planned?

PLANNED FOR QUALITY

"Aside from trying even harder to make it a great memorial to him, it was planned for quality. We've hired the best people all along the line, writers, directors, actors.

"All 26 subjects were approved by President Kennedy. There is an option for us to do four more. Whether we will or not, I don't know. But you can be sure as long as Sorensen and Nevins are around nothing can go wrong."

Consultants for the series are the late President's long time friend and associate, Theodore C. Sorensen, and two-time Pulitzer Prize author and historian, Allan Nevins, who is also DeWitt Clinton, professor emeritus of American history at Columbia University. The two were also the original research consultants when the then bedridden Senator Kennedy wrote the book as he recuperated from the painful surgery he'd undergone to repair back injuries suffered in his World War II heroism.

As for Saudek, his own reputation for integrity and quality television fare is Olympian. Audiences probably remember best his long-lamented "Omnibus."

"Sometimes it worked out that we cast actual look alikes . . . but there was no set rule about it.

"Sidney Blackmer, in 'The Oscar Underwood Story' this Sunday really does look like Underwood." (Underwood was the man whose courage in defying the Ku Klux Klan cost him the Presidential nomination in 1924.)

"Put a wig on Walter Matthau and he's uncannily like a photo of Andrew Johnson.

"But with Burgess Meredith as Peter Altgeld, well we have a good makeup man. So good in fact that a friend of Meredith's whispered to someone, 'Who's that?' He was cast because he was otherwise right: Short, the right age and with cantankerous sparks of fire in his voice.

"Senator Dirksen of course looks like Senator Dirksen because he's playing himself in 'The Robert Taft Story.' "

WAS SCRUPULOUS

Kennedy had been scrupulous in his book about setting the stage, defining the time and the place.

So, in the series "all English" for the Ann Hutchison story makes sense. Says Ritchie: "We're getting away from the stereotype to the way it really was. It was a post-Elizabethan period. And though nobody knows for sure how Ann looked, Wendy Hiller, in addition to giving a fine performance, does look amazingly like the statue of Ann in front of the State House in Boston."

Now for a twist.

USING GRANDSON

"Edmund Cobb, the grandson of Edmund Ross got in touch with us and we are using him in the Ross episode . . . but as Senator Anthony who sided against his grandfather in the impeachment proceedings against Andrew Johnson."

Ross, for other good reasons, has the sentimental edge for other people too. It was the only one of the studies to have been previously produced. "It was a live show, Senator Kennedy was there. I'll cherish always that wonderful smile when he congratulated us at the end," recalls Hilda Simms who

It was President Kennedy himself who had decreed that the "Profiles in Courage" series must be held back until after the 1964 Presidential election. Sidney Blackmer (right) plays the title role of a man who forfeited a chance at the Presidency to fight for the Klu Klux Klan. Pointing at a poster is costar Victor Jory. Beginning November 8, the series will be seen Sundays at 6:30 on NBC.

ONE QUIP TOO MANY

Mickey Manners, now in "Many Happy Returns," wrote finis to a career as an announcer when he cracked: "Folks, if you've got half a mind to try a cup of Blank coffee, that's all you'll need."

Jack Klugman went to Carnegie Tech but left to become an actor. He had to take interim jobs as a house painter and post office employe before the breaks came.

WORKS BOTH WAYS

Puppeteer Paul Ritts who's been widely commended for the ingenuity with which he presents such a varied subjects as astronomy, architecture, prehistoric life, etc. on NBC's "Exploring" says it's been an education for him too. "Since I write all the material for the puppets it is necessary to do considerable research. It has been much like going back to college for graduate work."

RECALL STARS' PREVIOUS JOBS

Bob Denver ("Gilligan's Island") worked as athletic director at a children's school . . . George Burns first broke into show business as a roller skater . . . Paul Picerni ("ABC's Young Marrieds") once headed the drama department at Mount St. Mary's Girls' School . . . Jack Sheldon ("The Cara Williams Show") started work at the age of 12, as a swimming teacher.

Richard Collier's first job was in an ice cream plant. "Eat all you want," the boss said, and Collier did until he weighed in at 200 and got a job modeling for Pennyworth in the "Joe Palooka" comic strip. It took 11 years to diet back to his present weight of 150.

Jim Nabors ("Gomer Pyle") once worked as a film cutter . . . Carl Reading ("The Doctors" —NBC) used to be a commercial artist . . . Michael Landon ("Bonanza") showed such promise as a javelin thrower that 40 universities offered him scholarships, but that career ended abruptly when his throwing arm was injured.

ANNOUNCE MORE SPECIAL SHOWS

An inside look at Red China via "exclusive films neither viewed nor censored by the Chinese" will be presented by CBS on its "TV Reports" at 9:30 p.m. November 11. It is not revealed how the film was obtained.

The presentation of the Nobel Peace Prize to the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King will be covered by NBC both with films of the actual ceremony and a documentary study of Dr. King's life and work.

The air time will be December 10 (7:30 p.m.) just two days after the event in Oslo, Norway.

A special in-depth interview with Dr. King in Delhi, India, a month in advance, in Atlanta, Ga., with Lester Hoole, distinguished journalist, is the interviewer.

Perkins Accepts White House Post

On behalf of "Wild Kingdom" Marlin Perkins accepted a citation from the National Wildlife Federation for outstanding achievement in furthering the cause of conservation during 1964. In addition to hosting the NBC series, Perkins is director of the St. Louis Zoo.

Stephens College, which last year bestowed an honorary degree on Patricia Barry, has now dedicated its new education studio to her. Miss Barry studied at the Columbia, Missouri school for two years under the distinguished actress Maude Adams.

Commendation for Richard Crenna of "Slattery's People" as "a young actor whose grasp of a legislator's role is remarkable," was read into the Congressional Record by Rep. James C. Corman (D. Cal.)

TIME PEERS

Rita Moreno and Alan Howard, the current "assistants" to Don Herbert on his "Watch Mr. Wizard" were born the same month and year that the program debuted . . . March, 1951.

CITED

Rep. James C. Corman (D., Calif.) cited the TV series "Slattery's People" in the Congressional Record as "a depiction of a modern legislator that is at once realistic and sympathetic, that is [illegible]."

"Profiles"

had appeared in that earlier cast.

Victor Jory also has a fond memory . . . of the meaty role of the vindictive Thaddeus Stevens. Smiles Ritchie, Jory implored, "Don't let anybody else have my part." Then when the time came he was off in summer stock, in a play I believe written by his son, so he got away.

BARRY MORSE

Barry Morse, however, makes a wonderful Stevens and Jory is appearing in another role . . . in "The Oscar Underwood Story."

Other fine actors in other episodes include Brian Keith, Lee Tracy, Kent Smith and Peter Lawford.

"There is, in addition to a courage by which men die, a courage by which men must live."

For the series, as for the book, there is the criterion for inclusion. But whereas the main studies in the book pertained to senators, the series has broadened to include the courageous, often life-meaning, career-wrecking acts of courage by other public figures.

"In addition to the eight main profiles, some 12 other men were mentioned of which we're using 10. Not that they weren't all courageous but some were too anecdotal to warrant full hour courage. Senator Calhoun's fight for higher Senate pay is an example."

"Courage," that word that meant so much to the late President, is what had brought about an earlier collaboration between the then senator and Robert Saudek . . . and left a touching legacy.

Saudek was producing a program "Call It Courage." How fitting is the young senator who had written "Profiles In Courage" would narrate. The young senator was delighted . . . and at the program's end read the summation of his own belief, the closing words of his book. Now that taping, his own words, spoken by himself, will close each program in the new "Profiles . . ." series.

"The stories of past courage can define that ingredient — they can teach, they can offer hope, they can provide inspiration. But they cannot supply courage itself. For this each man must look into his own soul."

Did you know: Jack Benny made his radio debut on an Ed Sullivan program (March 23, 1952)?

Dialing Around

Other election results may be totaled and done with but Raymond Massey is still getting mail about his television fund-raising appearances on behalf of Barry Goldwater. The issue of whether actors should or shouldn't get active in politics may never be resolved. At last reports, the Massey mail was running five letters against his stand to four letters for his stand.

---

A throat infection forced Jack Jones out of the Rodgers-Hammerstein "Cinderella" special being taped now for showing (on CBS) in February. Stepping in as Prince Charming is Stuart Damon. And he's sure in good company! (Celeste Holm is the Fairy Godmother, Ginger Rogers, the Queen and Walter Pigeon, the King).

---

Have you noticed the subtle switch on romanticking in "The Defenders?" Robert Reed doesn't have a steady girl any more . . . but a little more flirtation is being written into the E. G. Marshall role.

---

Walter Brennan, who's something of a jolly "Tyrant" in real life, too, says he has no cause to brag about it. He built a nice new movie theater near the motel he owns in Oregon and "then put the theater out of business by putting television sets in every room at the motel."

---

June Haver drove her $34,000 trailer from Los Angeles to New York after a recent "Outer Limits" filming. "I couldn't ask for more comfort!" she says. And though she isn't saying, it's a good bet she's found the solution at last to her pet problems. An animal lover and adopter of strays, the airlines have all but scratched her pooches in the past holding for small dogs, stray kittens or lost squirrels.

---

Hugh Downs is a travelin' man. A couple of weeks ago it was back to Chicago for the "Today" host to celebrate his 25th anniversary in broadcasting at the station where he started. Now he's off to Western Europe to film a report on how U.S. Armed Forces members will be spending Thanksgiving.

BIG FAMILY

Frank Blair is the father of five boys and three girls ranging in age from seven to 21. He also has five grandchildren.

LES CRANE NOW ENTERS ARENA

The man-in-the-middle of the new ABC late-night talk show, Les Crane, states "Nobody is going to sleep through my show." At Crane's insistence, he'll be broadcasting from a studio-in-the-round with the studio audience seated in circular tiers.

The program, to be a regular Monday through Friday feature, 11:15 p.m. (effective November 9) is the outgrowth of a one-week summer test run that stirred up controversy with a back view of a topless bathing suit among other topics.

Crane says that though he will have some big name guests, that's not his first requirement. "Lively opinion" and "the ability to defend idea," are considered the prime requirements.

Pay Tributes To JFK On TV

Hour-long tributes to John F. Kennedy are in preparation by ABC, CBS and NBC memorializing the late President on the first anniversary of his death.

"The Burden and The Glory of John F. Kennedy" is scheduled for midweek by CBS (Wednesday, November 18, 7:30 - 8:30 p.m.) and will examine the great events that occurred during Mr. Kennedy's tenure.

The NBC and ABC tributes will be televised at the same hour, Sunday, November 22, 6:30 - 7:30 p.m.

"The ABC presentation, "John F. Kennedy: His Two Worlds" aims for a "poignantly intimate portrayal of John Kennedy, private citizen, which will be seen along with film studies of the president's active public life."

Louis Hazzam, noted producer-writer of the NBC tribute stated: "What is remembered is never lost. We shall try to recollect the 'living' John F. Kennedy in a constructive program marking the anniversary of his death. Now he belongs to history, and his deeds to the nation's heritage."

Titled "John F. Kennedy Remembered" the NBC program has been ordered by 31 other countries and as many as can, plan to show it at the same time it is seen in the United States.

ELECTRIC LIVING GUIDE

"ROOM-BY-ROOM" CONTROLS PREFERRED

"Zoning, in most cases, is no substitute for precision room-by-room comfort. Fortunately, with the advent of complete electrical home heating systems, room-by-room thermostats make you the master of indoor climate.

"Furthermore, you're not the prisoner of your last year's design, let's say."

That's the opinion of a utility executive in a distant state noted for its chilly winters.

He, however, finds a plethora of seconding notions right around here, too, much closer to home.

"Hot spots" and "cool spots" are the perpetual lurking menaces with older heating systems.

"This is simply not so with electricity as fuel — providing of course the house is built to recommended standards so you're not trying to pair perfect heating with imperfect construction," he goes on.

—"Zoning" Versus "Room-By-Room"—

A local resident gives the homeowner's point of view:

"Our old-fashioned heating system was three-zone. I suppose you could do that too with electricity. From my personal point of view, though, we've found the best doesn't cost any more. And the best is definitely a thermostat in every room."

A builder, known for his advocacy of electrical heating was also consulted.

His opinion: "By all means, get room-by-room thermostats. You want the heat and the comfort where you are. We can design houses where the workshop is over the garage — and where it's never warm enough — but you've tied yourself forever to the design and the possible discomfort. And it's only going to get work if you decide to use inner space in a different way.

"Suppose you decide your small den should be swapped with the shop . . . and what was the shop, being bigger, turned into a family room.

"Only a heating system with the maximum potential always there is going to give the comfort you'll want on evenings when it's icy outside. And I know what I'm talking about. That's why we moved . . . moved to where electricity is doing our heating job."

QUESTION BOX

Q. Are there new colors in prospect for electrical baseboards?

A. If there are, the word hasn't gotten to us yet. Most manufacturers stick to charming baked-on neutral finishes. And that's strictly because that's what people want. An opaque tarnish baked on enamel finish has been the favored color. An attractive — and also neutral appearing color is on the market, too.

Q. Can you explain why insurance rates are lower in Pennsylvania for electrically heated houses?

A. Your question could be considered ambiguous. The Pennsylvania situation—viewed with understandable satisfaction by marketers of electrical heating equipment and services—applies so far within that state.
The comparison is between houses heated solely by electricity and houses heated by other fuels.
The electrically heated houses get the lower insurance rate for the very good dollars-and-sense reason that "electrically heated houses have proven themselves safer houses."

Q. Is it true that you'll find electrical heating on in suburbs?

A. No. It's true you will find first-rate electrical heating systems in well-built vacation houses in very remote areas. That's a tribute to both the flexibility and preference for electrical heating.
But electrical heating is also popular in the most urban areas. A large luxuary apartment just being completed in the heart of New York City it entirely heated by electricity. So is the largest apartment house in Chicago.

Q. How many applicances, which ones, go into a Gold Medallion home?

A. Electrical heating throughout—plus a basic minimum of other equipment, and a selection of optional items from another list both standarize and individualize acceptable equipment lists for "Gold Medallion" status. Your utility company can supply you with detailed leaflets. For a rule of thumb, you might just say "The Gold Medallion home is an all-electrical home."
